

Verse 1

You watched me choose my captivity
Patiently waiting for me to see
Time after time, You opened my eyes
You traded Your life for mine

Verse 2

Christ on the cross cried out Father please forgive them for all that they cannot see
You looked away so I could know grace
You gave what I could not pay.

Chorus

Oh the Cross Oh the Cross
Death defeated for us
Mercy poured out as heavens doors opened wide
You traded Your life for mine

Verse 3

Hope filled the world as the light broke through
All that was left was left was an empty tomb
Now death is undone all sin overcome
Jesus does not know defeat

Chorus x2

Oh the Cross Oh the Cross
Death defeated for us
Mercy poured out as heavens doors opened wide
You traded Your life for mine

Bridge x3

Those were my nails
Put through your hands
It was my cross
It was my sin
You gave it all
So I could live
Now I will live
Now I will live

Chorus x2

Oh the Cross Oh the Cross
Death defeated for us

Mercy poured out as heavens doors opened wide
You traded Your life for mine
